EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with applicant's representative on August 6, 2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 25, line 1, the phrase, "claims 21 or" has been deleted.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the claims are drawn to a method for producing 1,3-dibromoacetone by the reaction of bromine and acetone; to a process for making 1,3-dichloroacetone by chlorination of 1,3-dibromoacetone; and to a process for making epichlorohydrin from 1,3-dichloroacetone, said dichloroacetone produced from the corresponding dibromoacetone. In the process for making 1,3-dibromoacetone, the closest prior art, Russian patent no. SU 1567568 teaches the reaction of acetone with 2 equivalents of bromine to produce a mixture of brominated acetone derivatives; however, the reference fails to teach or fairly suggest the combination of equilibrating the mixture containing brominated acetone derivatives (catalyzed by HBr) and a crystallization step to increase the yield of the 1,3-dibromacetone desired, as recited in the instant claims.

The prior art also fails to teach or suggest the production of 1,3-dichloroacetone directly from 1,3-dibromoacetone, by reacting the dibromoacetone with a chlorine source. Accordingly, the instant claims are found allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sikarl A. Witherspoon whose telephone number is 571-272-0649. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 8:30-6:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Daniel Sullivan can be reached on 571-272-0779. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
